”Research shows that the level of interactivity within a learning environment is what drives learning. The more the learner interacts with other learners, the content and the instructor, the more likely it is, that leaning will actually occur.”

Kapp, Karl M., et al. The Gamification of Learning and Instruction Fieldbook : Ideas into Practice. Wiley, 2014. s.21

The screenshot shows the Zenodo website interface. At the top, the Zenodo logo is on the left, and search, upload, and community links are on the right. A yellow banner below the header states: "Zenodo.org will be unavailable for 2 hours on September 29th from 06:00-08:00 UTC. See announcement." The main content area features the title "The Game of Open Access" with a date of "September 20, 2023" and a category of "Open Access". The author is listed as "Engelsmann, Hazel C.; Michelsen, Mathias". The abstract text describes the adaptation of the game, its history, and its use in academic research. A "Preview" section shows a colorful circular diagram with text segments. On the right side, there are statistics for views (0), a list of indexed sources (including "Open Access"), and metadata such as the publication date (September 20, 2023), DOI (10.5281/zenodo.8362805), keyword (Boardgame, Open Access), and license (Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International).
